CHILD, 2, FOUND WITH DEAD BODIES

TWO bodies have been found at a house by emergency crews who discovered a two-year-old child unharmed.

Detectives in Burton-on-Trent, Staffs, said they are investigating the suspected murder-suicide of a man aged 32 and a 23-year-old woman.

Police were called to the house at around 11.05pm on Wednesday.

Neighbours said a couple, thought to be from Eastern Europe, lived at the property, along with a man believed to be related to one of them.

A passer-by, who named the couple as Lana Nemceva and Kiril Nemcev, a Pizza Express worker, said he had not been told the identities of those who had died.

He said of Lana: "She is a happy, happy girl. It's a beautiful and lovely family."

Staffordshire Police said in a statement: "The deaths are being treated as unexplained at this time and post mortems will take place in due course.

"A cordon is in place as forensic inquiries continue and detectives work to establish the circumstances around the deaths.

"Local neighbourhood officers will be making door-to-door inquiries."

Berger flips over to the Lib Dems

FORMER Labour frontbencher Luciana Berger has joined the Liberal Democrats.

The Liverpool Wavertree MP left Labour in February to form the Independent Group, which evolved into Change UK.

But she left that party in June and has now joined Jo Swinson's Lib Dems.

Ms Berger said: "This is a moment of national crisis. The Liberal Democrats are unequivocal in wanting to stop Brexit and are committed to securing Britain's future as a tolerant, open and inclusive society.

"I am joining Jo Swinson and the Liberal Democrats today, in the national interest, to offer a vital, positive alternative to Boris Johnson and Jeremy Corbyn and help build a future that our country deserves."

20,000 more cops campaign launch

A NATIONAL campaign to recruit 20,000 extra police officers has been launched.

The Chancellor promised £750million to fund the first year of the project, during which it is hoped 6,000 new officers will be put in place.

Sajid Javid said in his spending round on Wednesday that an extra £45m would be spent this year to recruit the first 2,000 police officers by the end of March.

The recruitment drive was one of Boris Johnson's key Tory leadership campaign promises.

JOHNSON QUITS!

No, not Boris, his brother Jo

JO Johnson, the younger brother of Prime Minister Boris Johnson, is resigning as an MP and minister, saying he is "torn between family loyalty and the national interest".

The business minister and Tory MP for Orpington, south-east London, cited an "unresolvable tension" in his role.

Mr Johnson voted Remain in the 2016 EU referendum, while his brother co-led the Leave campaign.

He also resigned as a minister last year in protest at Theresa May's Brexit deal.

But he re-entered government after the Conservative Party elected his brother as leader.

Purge

A Downing Street spokesman said: "The prime minister would like to thank Jo for his service.

"He's been a brilliant, talented minister and a fantastic MP.

"The PM, as both a politician and brother, understands this will not have been an easy matter for Jo."

It is thought Mr Johnson was upset about the purge of colleagues who voted against their party this week.

Former cabinet minister David Gauke, one of the MPs who lost the Conservative whip, tweeted: "Lots of MPs have had to wrestle with conflicting loyalties in recent weeks. None more so than Jo."

Labour's shadow education secretary Angela Rayner said: "Boris Johnson poses such a threat that even his own brother doesn't trust him."

And, in a tweet, Rachel Johnson, the Remain-supporting sister of Boris and Jo Johnson, said "the family avoids the topic of Brexit, especially at meals, as we don't want to gang up on the PM".

Footie star is guilty of gym murder

AN ex-footballer has been found guilty of stabbing an alleged international cocaine dealer to death at a kick-boxing gym over a £20,000 debt.

Charles Riddington, 37 (above), and three other men "ambushed" George Barker, 24, at the Double K gym in Bexley, south-east London, on November 14, 2016.

Barker – a suspected large-scale cocaine wholesaler – was stabbed 17 times and staggered to the door before he collapsed, the Old Bailey heard.

Riddington, who played for Millwall in his youth, fled the scene and travelled on a fake passport to Germany and then South Africa.

He was eventually extradited from northern Cyprus last year and charged.

Prosecutor Jonathan Rees QC told jurors the "merciless" killing followed a row over an unpaid debt.

Riddington was found guilty of murder but cleared of possessing an offensive weapon.

He was remanded in custody to be sentenced later this month.

'Lazy' landlords in cladding warning

THE Government will "name and shame" businesses and landlords that do not co-operate with new post-Grenfell building safety rules.

Housing Secretary Robert Jenrick told MPs "inaction will have consequences" in terms of "the remediation of dangerous ACM cladding on buildings where it poses a clear risk".

In a statement on building safety, Mr Jenrick said: "I will name and shame those individuals and businesses if I see I see inaction during the course of the autumn.

"If we reach the end of the autumn and building owners have not responded and do not have exceptional reasons for this, I will take whatever steps and sanctions are necessary."

COP BOUGHT PORN ON GRIEVERS' TV

A POLICE officer has been jailed for a year after he downloaded porn on the TV of a family who had just lost their child to suicide as they waited for the undertakers to arrive.

PC Avi Maharaj (left), 44, was at Graham and Allison Miller's home in Earlsfield, south-west London after the death of their 14-year-old son Harry in February last year.

While he was alone, he used their Virgin account to make a £25.96 porn purchase on their telly.

Southwark Crown Court heard that Maharaj told a series of lies to try to escape the blame, claiming that the house had been broken into by an intruder who'd accessed the TV.

He also logged incorrect time codes into the crime scene log to make it appear he left the premises earlier than he did.

Edmund Gritt, defending Maharaj of Hayes, West London, said: "He wishes to make wholly shamed apologies to the Miller family. He feels disgusted with himself."

Passing sentence Judge Deborah Taylor told the officer: "Your actions exacerbated grief and suffering."

Maura tipped to pip Amber for Ice series

LOVE Island winner Amber Gill's rumoured appearance on the forthcoming series of Dancing on Ice is said to be cancelled, with show bosses opting to sign Maura Higgins (above) instead.

The Tyneside beautician was thought to be confirmed for the popular talent show, which sees a group of hapless celebrities with little or no skating ability perform complex dance routines on the ice each week.

But ITV bosses have reportedly been swayed by fiery Maura following her string of appearances on daily chat show This Morning, where she features as a resident agony aunt.

It's understood that the straight-talking Irish girl was one of "several" Love Island stars considered by producers.

A source said: "Dancing On Ice producers were always going to sign a Love Island star.

"It was looking good for Amber but Maura pipped her to the post with her personality."

On yer bike, locals order Gunners fans

LOCALS are calling for football fans travelling to Arsenal games to arrive on BICYCLES after opposing plans for permanent coach spaces around the ground.

Bosses at the Gunners have applied to Islington Council for permission to allow parking for 54 coaches at four spots near the Emirates Stadium.

Since the club moved there in 2006, it has used temporary parking permissions for coaches.

But now, chiefs at the Premiership team want the spaces to be made permanent.

Locals, however, have inundated the council with objections saying fans should 'get on their bikes' to travel to matches.

Planning chiefs meeting next week to decide on the matter.

PERV TOOK PICS OF YOUNG GIRLS' BUMS

A PERVERT took thousands of pictures of young girls' legs and buttocks, a court heard.

Craig Smith, 43, amassed a collection of 10,738 images and videos over a five-year period.

Many focused on young females' legs and buttocks as he snapped them covertly in Dundee city centre.

Cops who examined his electronic devices found explicit chat logs in which Smith asked females how young they were, as well as e-mail accounts with names such as "Daddy the pervert", Dundee Sheriff Court heard.

Yet he insisted he was simply a "candid photography" enthusiast and that his pictures "weren't sexually motivated".

Between 2010 and 2015 he photographed girls at a shopping centre, at cafes, pedestrian crossings and on public transport.

Smith also downloaded indecent images of children.

He told police he did not have an interest in children and did not know the ages of the youngsters in the images he downloaded.

However, police found thousands of images and videos on other his devices showing young women and schoolchildren being followed around the city.

Some were given file names such as "posh daughter", "denim shorts" and various descriptions referring to the girls' buttocks.

Officers also found explicit search terms relating to "teens" in Smith's online history.

Smith admitted a charge of breaching the peace by taking snaps and videos of females without their knowledge and consent, as well as making indecent images of children.

The Sheriff deferred sentencing until October 2 for background reports.

Stabbed gardener in court over fight

A LANDSCAPE gardener who started a fight in a builders' merchant's which ended with him nursing a stab wound to the stomach has avoided jail.

Matthew "Maffa" Ramage, 32, walked up to a customer at Green & Son Building Supplies in Lingdale and punched him in the face.

"Then he repeatedly assaulted him with punches and kicks over about a minute," said prosecutor Paul Abrahams.

"It was during that sustained assault that the complainant picked up a knife and stabbed the defendant in the stomach, and Mr Ramage immediately backed away.

Ramage launched the attack in front of shocked members of the public just after 9am, Teesside Crown Court heard.

Bleeding from facial injuries, the other man then picked up two hammers and followed Ramage outside.

He threw items at Ramage, who had bricks in his hands, and after a "stand-off" in the yard, both men left.

Ramage, of Skelton, later admitted the June 3 affray and was given a 10-month jail term, suspended for 18 months, with 140 hours' unpaid work.

NO REMORSE: Jailed teacher Andrew Beesley

A PRIMARY school teacher has been jailed for sexually assaulting a female colleague.

By ROY DURRIDGE
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Andrew Beesley, 38, was locked up for 12 months following the incident at the school in Manchester.

The assault happened when the school had broken up for Easter, Manchester Crown Court heard.

Beesley, a senior member of staff who had worked at the school for 16 years. He in the past been warned about making sexual innuendoes to staff.

He went in to the school during the Easter break after noticing on Facebook that the woman had also discussed going in.

Beesley told the woman that he had the school's master key, and suggested they could have sex in the headteacher's office.

She declined, but Beesley then put her in a "fireman's lift", tried to kiss her and exposed himself.

He also smacked her on the bottom, the court heard.

The woman reported the incident and Beesley was suspended.

Joke

Beesley, from Bolton, was arrested and found guilty of three counts of sexual assault after a trial.

He said his behaviour was a joke, rather than sexually motivated.

A judge said Beesley has showed "no remorse" and that he is "incapable of facing up to the truth".

Judge Anthony Cross QC told Beesley: "It was perfectly clear to you that there were boundaries that had to be respected in the workplace.

"She must have been terrified about making the complaint. She would have been worried that no-one was going to believe her.

"Your victim has suffered severe psychological harm. This was on any view a protracted incident.

"You were a teacher who enjoyed not only good character, but a positive reputation amongst your peers.

"You have demonstrated no remorse at all. It seems to me that you are incapable of facing up to the truth of the accusations against you."

Beesley's barrister had asked the judge whether it was possible for Beesley to avoid jail.

But the judge said: "In my judgement, this offending behaviour is too serious for me to suspend the prison sentence."

Beesley denied wrongdoing but was found guilty following a trial earlier this year.

MAN KILLED BY RUNAWAY MOBI

A DISABLED man was flung to his death from an out-of-control speeding mobility scooter.

Shane Field, 45, was heading down a road at speeds of over 20mph when he put his foot on the ground before the scooter fell onto its side, flinging him off.

He was taken to hospital where it was found he had suffered a catastrophic brain injury in the fall and the decision was made to turn life support off the same day.

It was later discovered that Shane had replaced a flat tyre on the scooter himself but had not installed a flat washer.

Rattling

This caused the wheel to become loose and the scooter, which should have been restricted to 8mph, hit 22mph instead.

A witness to the accident in Stoke-in-Trent told an inquest at North Staffordshire Coroner's Court: "As I was walking up the hill I heard a rubbing and rattling sound and as I looked up I saw a mobility scooter with a male rider coming down the bank on Milton Road.

"He was trying to slow the scooter with his foot as he was travelling at about 20mph. As he passed me on the scooter it seemed to turn to the left and slipped over throwing him into the road and a wheel rolled down the hill."

THE NEWS FLASHER'S WEEKEND Sport TOP TEN FACTS ABOUT CLOWNS

1 CLOWNS have been making children laugh and cry for hundreds of years.

2 WELL, mainly making them cry, to be honest – but they do keep trying.

3 THE most famous good clown is probably Ronald McDonald, who has been giving the gift of laughter – not to mention diabetes and heart disease – since 1967.

4 AND the most famous bad clown is Pennywise – star of the horror film It, which has a sequel out this weekend.

5 IT'S quite handy that Pennywise wears a clown costume while randomly stabbing innocent strangers – otherwise we might just assume we were watching yet another evening news bulletin.

6 THE clowning tradition started in London's old theatre district of Covent Garden and Drury Lane.

7 YOU can still find hundreds of them in the capital today – but they tend to gather in Westminster.

8 IN America, clowns regularly visit hospitals to cheer up sick children.

9 YOU might think that being terrified by a middle-aged oddball in make-up would be the last thing a sickly child wants – but they're American, remember. They're probably just grateful they're not in school being shot at.

10 CLOWNS are banned from joining the AA.

SUPERMARKET CREEP

SACKED: Stefan McGregor

Perv spanked colleagues' arses at Asda superstore

By GARY DORAN
gary@sundaysport.co.uk

A PERVY supermarket worker who sexually assaulted female colleagues inside an Asda store has avoided jail.

Stefan McGregor preyed on female workers a number of times at Asda's Ayr store.

The 28-year-old admitted six offences – including slapping victims on the bottom, placing his arms around them and uttering inappropriate comments.

He told one co-worker that he and another colleague could engage in group sexual activity and that he could molest her on the premises.

On another occasion he unzipped his trousers and made an inappropriate gesture towards one victim's breasts.

McGregor fondled one victim's bottom and asked if she would engage in sexual activity with him.

Challenged

One of his victims was aged just 17 at the time.

McGregor lost his job as a direct consequence of his actions.

He admitted the offences between August 1 last year and June 12 and appeared at Ayr Sheriff Court last week for sentencing.

Defence solicitor Quinton Muir said: "All the victims in this case were mature adult females who worked with him.

"It was unfortunate this behaviour wasn't challenged at a much earlier stage.

"He pleaded guilty at the first opportunity.

Mr Muir said McGregor could benefit from a court order as an alternative to custody, adding: "The report is relatively favourable.

"There is a detailed programme requirement which would be of benefit to Mr McGregor in challenging his actions and behaviour.

"There seems to be some scope to work within the community and I would ask my lordship to proceed on that basis."

Sheriff Liam Murphy warned McGregor that his offences merited a custodial sentence.

But due to McGregor admitting his actions – saving witnesses from going to trial – and being a first time offender the sheriff was able to step back from jail time.

The sheriff ordered McGregor, of Ayr, to be placed under supervision for three years and he must also take part in a behavioural programme designed to provide treatment for men who commit sexual offences.

He was also put on the Sex Offenders' register for three years.

Helen: I lost £70k in phone 'bank' scam

TELLY presenter Helen Skelton has told of how she was scammed out of £70,000 after falling for a terrifying phone hoax.

The 36-year-old star (above) was scammed out of her entire life savings after a phone call with who she was told was her bank – which is why she is launching a new ITV show about scamming.

Helen said: "I got phoned up by the bank and told something dodgy had gone on with my account. The next week £70,000 – all of my savings – had gone."

Helen admitted she was distracted at the time of the call, but didn't think anything of the conversation because she trusted it was a genuine call from her bank.

The former BBC sports presenter added: "The reason I'm making this programme is because it happens every day of the week, and to everyone. We are not talking about little old ladies who are always the victims."

BIANCA FROM WIGAN GOES TOPLESS FOR THE FIRST TIME

Woman killed in rare bear attack

A BLACK bear has killed a woman in a remote cabin in an attack that experts say is extremely rare.

American Catherine Sweatt-Mueller, 62, of Maple Plain, Minnesota, was staying with her parents in the cabin on Red Pine Island in Rainy Lake, Ontario, police have confirmed.

Cops found a bear standing over Sweatt-Mueller's body and shot the animal.

I KILLED TO SEE FEEL . . . THEN I

SERIAL killer Joanna Dennehy is serving a whole life sentence for murdering three men before randomly selecting and attempting to kill two others.

But who is she – and how did the Home Counties schoolgirl become a cold-blooded killer?

OVER a terrifying 10-day spree in March 2013, evil Joanna Dennehy murdered three men in and around Peterborough.

Police launched a nationwide hunt to find her after the bodies were discovered in remote ditches in Cambridgeshire.

But had gone on to drive 140 miles to Hereford, where she repeatedly stabbed two dog walkers entirely at random.

Miraculously, they survived their dreadful injuries – but who was this sick woman who tried to kill them?

Born in 1982 in St Albans, Herts, Joanna Dennehy was raised in a four-bedroom house in the affluent commuter town of Harpenden.

Psychopathic

A regular fixture on the school hockey and netball teams, the mother-of-two doesn't fit the bill of an archetypal serial killer.

But she has been diagnosed with several psychopathic and anti-social disorders, including borderline personality disorder.

After her arrest she was also diagnosed with paraphilia sadomasochism, a condition in which sexual excitement is derived from pain and humiliation.

With a history of low-level crime, she was continuously on the police's radar.

But no one could have guessed she was to become one of Britain's most notorious killers.

BLOODLUST: Evil Dennehy wanted to kill nine men

LUKASZ SLABOSZEWAKI

Her first victim was a Polish national aged 31.

Dennehy had met Lukasz Slaboszewski at a property in Orton Goldhay, Peterborough, around March 19 – just days before killing him.

He had told friends he had met an "English girlfriend" and it is thought he went to meet Dennehy expecting to enjoy an evening of sex with her.

After being coaxed to meet her by a series of text messages, the killer stabbed Slaboszewski in the heart before storing his body in a wheelie bin – at one point smirking as she showed the corpse to a teenage girl.

JOHN CHAPMAN

Dennehy's second victim was John Chapman, who she killed on March 29.

The Falklands veteran, who was 56, lived at a bedsit in the same run-down property as her.

High on drink and drugs, he was "at the mercy" of Dennehy as she stabbed him to death.

After she'd killed him, jurors at Cambridge Crown Court heard she contacted her accomplice, the 7ft 3in Gary Richards – also known as Gary Stretch – and told him: "Oops, I've done it again."

With the help of Stretch and friend Leslie Layton, she transported the bodies in a car registered in the false company name of Undertakers and Sons, before burying them.

KEVIN LEE

Later that day Dennehy murdered her third victim, her landlord and lover Kevin Lee, 48.

Stabbed in the neck and chest, Lee's body – clothed in a black sequin dress and arranged in a sexual pose – was discovered in a roadside ditch near Newborough on March 30.

Four days later, a farmer found the corpses of Slaboszewski and Chapman in a remote dyke five miles away.

Lee, a married father-of-two, apparently once likened the serial killer to "Uma Thurman from Kill Bill and the woman from the Terminator".

During her trial, judge Mr Justice Spencer told Dennehy: "The way in which his body was dumped was part of the playing out of your sexual and sadistic motivation."

ROBIN BEREZA and JOHN ROGERS

As police launched a triple murder probe and appealed for information about their whereabouts, Dennehy, Stretch and friend Mark Lloyd went on the run, driving to Hereford.

Dennehy made it clear to the men she wanted "a man with a dog".

Upon seeing Robin Bereza, 64, walking his dog she jumped out of the car and launched a frenzied attack on the retired firefighter.

Describing the attack, Lloyd said in court: "I thought she was going to mug him but then it twigged on me. I thought:

HOW I WOULD WANTED MORE

VICTIMS: Lukasz (left), John and (below right) Kevin

'You just want blood'."

After driving on, Dennehy then targeted John Rogers, 56, who was walking his pet lurcher.

Afterwards Dennehy climbed back into the car carrying Rogers' whippet and told her pals: "It's me only friend."

WHAT LED HER TO KILL?

At the time of the murders, neighbours claimed Dennehy had been involved in a row over the rented property she was living in.

Slaboszewski and Chapman were said to have lived with Dennehy in a shared house, which was owned by property developer Mr Lee.

Mr Lee had been trying to the three of them in the weeks before the killings.

Toni Roberts, who used to live in the house, told the court that the tenants had been served an eviction notice by him ordering them out by April 25 that year so the house could be renovated.

The court was told that the serial killer then had a "thirst for blood" and while on the journey to Hereford Dennehy told Stretch and Lloyd: "I want to have my fun", bragged that she and Stretch were "like Bonnie and Clyde", and said she "wanted nine victims".

Dennehy was caught after two days on the run, on the day she attacked Bereza and Rogers and the day before the bodies of Slaboszewski and Chapman were found.

Police used CCTV footage of the killer as she was driven across the country, as well as when she stopped to buy tobacco and at a service station.

Upon her arrest, Dennehy was assessed as a psychiatric risk and taken to a mental health unit.

WHAT HAPPENED IN COURT?

The judge told the Old Bailey on the day she was sentenced: "Within the space of 10 days you murdered three men in cold blood.

"Although you pleaded guilty, you've made it quite clear you have no remorse.

"You are a cruel, calculating, selfish and manipulative serial killer."

The judge described how Dennehy had earlier sent him a letter saying that she was not at all sorry for carrying out the murders.

He added that she told a psychiatrist: "I killed to see how I would feel, to see if I was as cold as I thought I was, then it got more-ish."

Dennehy – now still just 37 years old – was ordered to serve the rest of her life in prison, to which she laughed and smirked.

She became one of just three women in English history – along with Moors Murderer Myra Hindley, now dead, and House of Horrors beast Rosemary West, who remains behind bars – to be told that she can never be released.

Stretch, Layton and Robert Moore, who provided accommodation to the killer for two nights, were also sentenced for helping in her killing spree.

Kris goes green for new show

ACTOR Kris Marshall has revealed how his hair turned GREEN after a dip in the sea during filming for new show Sanditon.

The 46-year-old (above), best known for playing dozy Nick Harper in My Family and DI Humphrey Goodman in Death in Paradise, stars as property developer Tom Parker in the Jane Austen adaptation for ITV.

During filming in Somerset, however, Kris tried to keep fit in-between takes by going for a bracing swim in the sea, but had to stop when his hair turned green, caused by his hair dye reacting with salt water.

He said: "There's some male nudity in the series, and I was keenly aware I was the most senior of the men who strip off by 15 years.

"So a daily workout was a must and I also swam in the sea…until my hair started to turn green – the dye they'd put in it, to make it darker than my natural colour, reacted badly to the salt water."

You gotta laugh!

MY wife had a go at me last night. She said "You'll drive me to my grave."
I had the car out in thirty seconds.

Milf Talk

WHEN it comes to sex nothing beats experience – and MILFs have plenty of that! Women approaching middle age have done it all... or have they?

'He gets it deep and can hold my hips and pound into me'

THREESOMES

JULES: There was this one night when I was out with one of my workmates and we ended up meeting two blokes in a bar. They were in the city on business so we ended up going back to their room. My mate fell asleep within 20 minutes, but one of the blokes started asking me if I'd been with more than one man at the same time. I said no, then the other guy put his hand on my thigh and leant in for a kiss. I knew what they were getting at, so I thought, "Why not?" Life is about trying new things. It was incredible.

PIPPA: Sounds great. I'm yet to try it but I'd like to do it with a man and a woman.

FANTASIES

JULES: I've always loved the idea of shagging someone while another man watched.

PIPPA: I fantasise about having sex with another woman. I'm not a lesbian – I love blokes. But sometimes I imagine another woman in the bedroom with us when we're having sex and think about sitting on her face while my husband plays with my boobs. It gets me so horny!

KINKY STUFF

JULES: I have a bit of a thing for smearing food on my man while we're having sex, or when I'm going down on him. Obviously it has to be sexy food like strawberries or ice cream.

PIPPA: I like being tied up. It's the sense of helplessness I get when my husband ties me to the bed, spreads my legs and goes down on me. The tension builds up so much that I can't take it, but there's nothing I can do about it. I'm putty in his hands until he's finished having his wicked way with me.

BUM FUN

JULES: I don't hate it. I'm sort of on the fence, although I won't do it that often as I don't want my husband to think he can get it whenever he wants!

PIPPA: I'm fine with it. I think I've done it that many times that I'm pretty used to it and I relax quickly. A lot of women bang on about how much it can hurt. I always tell my man to take his time and we use plenty of lube. And you can have intense orgasms from anal sex if you get him to fiddle with your clit at the same time.

FAVE POSITION

JULES: I quite like it doggy style, which is also my husband's favourite position. It feels nice for me because he gets it deep and can hold my hips and can really pound into me. Plus I like him being able to trace his fingers around my nipples or finger my clit at the same time.

PIPPA: I like most of them, to be honest. I quite like being on top as I feel in control and I like watching my husband staring at my boobs as they bounce around while I ride him. I pretty much like all the positions – it depends what kind of mood I'm in at the time!

DANI MAYE

NAUGHTY Dani Maye once slept with a brother and sister in the SAME day!

But the 34F babe is quick to add it WASN'T at the same time!

Dani, 26, from Kingston, Surrey, said: "I was at a house party and started getting off with this girl.

"We ended up in a bedroom and she went down on me for ages.

"Back downstairs I got chatting to a sexy bloke and 10 minutes later I was riding his cock in the same bedroom."

A few weeks later I bumped into the host of the party who told me my one-night stands were related!"

Girls looking for a Cheeky new sideline

THE CHEEKY Girls are on the hunt for new jobs, with one looking for a job selling cars and the other working in cosmetics.

Twin sisters Monica and Gabriela Irimia, 36, were propelled into the spotlight in 2002 after appearing on Popstars: The Rivals.

Their song, Cheeky Song (Touch My Bum) – written by their mum Margit – stormed to No2 in the Charts.

Now Margit says her daughters can't live off the song forever and were in training for other jobs.

She said: "A few years ago we went on a tour of care homes in Cornwall. There were 80-year-olds standing up doing The Cheeky Song.

"I've told the girls that there is a limited time they can do this, so they are preparing themselves by doing apprenticeships and courses.

"Gabriela has done three cosmetic courses and Monica is into car sales. They are passionate car drivers, both of them."

EACH WEEK Weekend Sport DELVES INTO THE REAL-LIFE SEX LIVES OF EVERYDAY BRITISH WOMEN...

I snogged both lads – and my two mates...my fanny was throbbing!

FUN IN THE SUN: Laura went sex mad on holiday

AS PLENTY of youngsters head off on their holidays this summer, they'll be hoping for plenty of sun, sea and SEX.

And for 23-year-old Laura Purvis, her girl's holiday was jam-packed full of shagging.

Last year she headed to the party island of Ibiza and bonked four fellas – and this year, she more than DOUBLED that.

Laura, a student from Leeds, told the Weekend Sport exactly what she got up to last week...

LAST year, I went to Ibiza with two mates on our first girls' holiday.

It was amazing – and I'm not just talking about the famous nightclubs – the lads were so fit and horny.

I shagged four blokes over the week and came home feeling a little disappointed I'd not pulled more!

When I'm at home, I'm quite reserved but when I got on holiday, felt the lovely, warm sunshine and drank some sangria – I was relaxed and totally up for it.

As soon as we came home, we went online looking for our next trip, and booked a week in Magaluf.

We've just got back and I'm well and truly shagged out!

On the first night, we checked into our hotel and got chatting to these two lads who were staying in the room next door.

They were a little older than us and after a few drinks, we decided to play spin the bottle together.

I snogged them both – and my two mates – and my fanny was throbbing with delight.

When one of them returned the kiss, he didn't stop and his hands went towards my tiny shorts.

Eager for a good shag, I whipped them off and he began plunging his fingers into my wet pussy.

I knew the others were watching us, but it just turned me on even more.

After I had my first orgasm, he stopped and led me off towards their bedroom.

We didn't even shut the door and before I knew it, he was balls deep.

He was thrusting away when my friend and the other lad came into the bedroom to join in – she was getting shagged right next to me!

We groped each other's boobs and – so our other pal didn't feel left out – we both began playing with her fanny, too.

As you can imagine, there was plenty of action that week and we were all sharing lads and bed hopping. It was mad!

One night we went on a bar crawl and I gave a stranger a blowjob on stage in the middle of a club.

It was only a game but it turned me on so much. He shagged me in the club loos afterwards but I didn't even ask his name.

Another night, I watched my two pals take part in a saucy lesbian 69er which was one of the hottest things I've ever seen.

I was in the shower getting ready for the night out and when I came out, there they were – hungrily lapping at each other's shaven fannies.

They later told me they were feeling randy and just needed to relieve some tension – I just wish I'd not gone for a shower as I might have got some girl action myself!

I shagged one bloke that night and when we got back to the hotel I ended up f*cking one of our neighbours.

All us three girls got more than enough sex and we're already set to return next year.

Maybe then I can double my bonking figures!

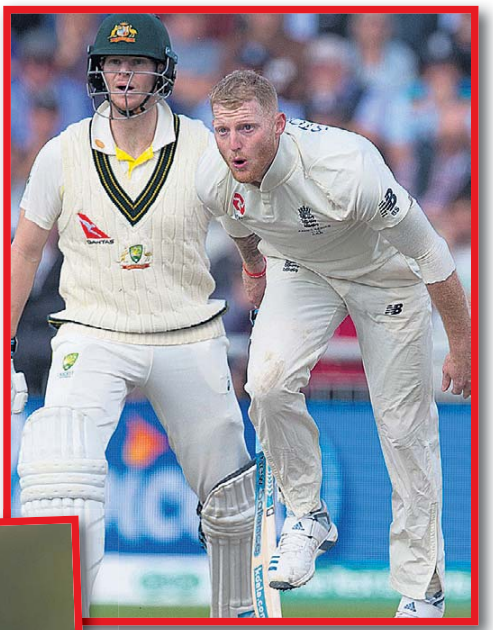
THE ASHES LIVE – FRI & SAT 10AM SKY SPORTS (HIGHLIGHTS ON CHANNEL 5 7PM)

IT'S hard to imagine a more exciting finale to a cricket match than the last Test at Headingley over the Bank Holiday weekend.

But we'll still be watching all the action from Old Trafford this weekend… just in case.

And, if we're honest, we'd take a boring win over an exciting defeat!



LIVE EURO 2020 QUALIFIERS: WALES V AZERBAIJAN & SCOTLAND V RUSSIA – BOTH FRIDAY 7.30PM SKY SPORTS: ENGLAND V BULGARIA – SATURDAY 4.30PM ITV

ENGLAND footie fans get the best deal this weekend as Gareth Southgate's men take on Bulgaria at Wembley on Saturday afternoon, with analysis from Ian Wright, Lee Dixon and Roy Keane.

The same fixture ended 4-0 in 2010, so let's hope for a similar result this time around.

Wales and Scotland both play on Friday night so set your recorder, send the missus to her mother's and enjoy a triple whammy!

LIVE RUGBY UNION: ENGLAND V ITALY – FRIDAY 7PM SKY SPORTS (HIGHLIGHTS 11.05PM BBC1)

THE Rugby World Cup is just a couple of weeks away and England will want to make this warm-up match count.

They're playing at St James' Park in Newcastle, so watch out for nosebleeds and hypothermia among the Twickers toffs who dare to travel north!

Catch the live action on Sky or the highlights on the BBC.

My TV choice...

STRICTLY COME DANCING LAUNCH SHOW* – Sat, 7.10pm, BBC1

THE glitziest show on telly returns with a bang as Kylie Minogue belts out a medley of her biggest hits while the professionals perform a dazzling routine.

Then it's onto the serious business of announcing the pro-celebrity pairings and also introducing new judge Motsi Mabuse (right).

That should leave just enough time for a huge group dance before the pairs head off for practice.

WHO WANTS TO BE A MILLIONAIRE* – Sat, 9.30pm, ITV

IT'S the last in the series of the quiz with a big name – and an even bigger prize pot.

Jeremy Clarkson poses the questions as contestants aim for a shot at a serious amount of cash, with three lifelines to help.

AROUND THE WORLD BY TRAIN WITH TONY ROBINSON* – Sat, 8pm, Channel 5

SUMMER is over but you can still go on a trip this autumn – and with a beloved national treasure, too!

OK, so you can't actually go with him. But you can watch as Tony Robinson takes a rail journey around the entire globe.

This series has been on before but they're promising new bits in the repeat.

Movies

IT CHAPTER TWO (15)

IT'S back. Nearly 30 years after a devilish clown terrorised the small town of Derry, Maine, Pennywise has decided to pop back again.

And he's not got any friendlier!

Now the gang of kids who fought him off way back when must re-unite to see if they can do it all again. Viewers of a nervous disposition should pack spare undercrackers.

SPRINTER (15)

AKEEM Sharp is a poor kid from Jamaica who might just be the next Usain Bolt.

But his rising star is being weighed down by a volatile dad and a brother who follows the wrong path.

Will Smith and his wife Jada are behind this gritty drama, which looks like it could be a runaway hit…

RAPID RESPONSE (12A)

IN the 1960s, motor racing was a truly dangerous game – one in seven drivers were killed on the track.

This documentary tells the story of an American racing fan who became a doctor – and decided to make a difference.

With bags of archive footage and interviews with drivers like Mario Andretti and Rick Mears, this ace documentary tells how he turned motor racing into one of the world's safest sports.

Streaming

THE SPY* (Netflix)
YOU know Sacha Baron Cohen best as the man behind comedy characters like Ali G and Borat.

But this Netflix original film sees him cast aside his lime green mankini for a dramatic role in a very serious tale.

Based on a true story, it's about a member of the Israeli secret service who went undercover in Syria in the early 1960s. Powerful and gripping stuff.

WANDERLUST* (Netflix)
DRAMA series about a middle-aged couple who try to spice up their sex life by encouraging each other to shag other people.

It was described by one newspaper as "the steamiest show on television" – so it might be worth a look!

Then again, the paper in question was The Mail on Sunday – and those sad sacks probably get excited by a bare table leg. So don't blame us if it's as steamy as an Argos home sauna.

ABUSED BY THE POLICE?* (BBC iPlayer)
IF you thought our boys in blue were a bit power crazy, you should see the cops on the other side of the Pond!

When they're not shooting down unarmed black people, they're touching up teen girls in the back of squad cars.

This damning documentary investigates a few cases.

Games

Catherine: Full Body* (PS4)
A BONKERS game that's half RPG, half puzzler. The main protagonist is Vincent, who spends evenings chatting up women down at his local. Then at night he enters a nightmare world of deadly pyramid puzzles in his sleep. The title refers to his girlfriend who may or may not cause the nightmares.

WRC* (PS4, XO, PC)
OFFICIALLY licensed World Rally racing sim featuring all the official teams, circuits and drivers. The graphics are impressive and the gameplay is designed to be uncomplicated and fun. There's a training mode that allows you to master race routes and hone your skills behind the wheel first.

The Angry Birds Movie 2 VR: Under Pressure* (PSVR) THIS open world battle sim based on the recent animated feature is all about teamwork. It follows the plot of the movie in which the Angry Birds join forces with the pigs to fight a common foe. All the action takes place on a submarine which one player navigates while others take control of loading up the torpedoes.

SPECIAL OFFER: ANY 3 PRIVATE SHOPS DVDs FOR £25 (was £75)

Dear Lexi,

I RECENTLY bought a porn DVD and as I was watching it I realised there was something rather familiar about the girl giving an enthusiastic blowjob to a very well-hung bloke.

When she eventually raised her head I discovered it was my GIRLFRIEND with her mouth full of cock.

I was shocked but I carried on watching to see what else she got up to.

My jaw almost dropped to the floor as I saw this rampant stud pound her in every hole possible before finally shooting his load all over her face.

Do you think I should ditch her?

PS, Birmingham

Lexi says...

ONE word... YES!

Dear Lexi,

I'VE played and fiddled with my old man for as long as I can remember.

My mum even embarrassed me once by telling my wife-to-be that I toyed with my todger as a toddler.

Thankfully, my girl just laughed and we have a great sex life now we're married.

But I still bash the bishop regularly and the missus does it for me sometimes, too.

However, I've got to thinking that with the amount of exercise the old fella gets, it should be bigger than it is. So why is it that my donger seems to be getting smaller rather than bigger?

Please come round and have a look.

GN, Blackpool

Lexi says...

UNLESS it's shrunk so you can't bonk the wife, I'd stop worrying and keep tugging!

Dear Lexi,

A COUPLE of weeks ago on a romantic break in London to celebrate my bird's 21st birthday we decided to take a tour on an open-topped bus.

We'd had a meal and a few glasses of wine and by the time we'd got aboard we were quite merry.

There were quite a few tourists on the bus, so we went upstairs and sat at the back for a bit of a kiss and cuddle.

It wasn't long before we started to feel a bit frisky and she sneakily unzipped my kecks and eased my throbbing manhood out.

Then she hoisted herself onto my boner and began humping and writhing as I gripped her tight arse.

Soon we were both grunting and moaning as we orgasmed in unison.

Suddenly we remembered where we were and to our horror realised all the other passengers had been watching.

We got off at the next stop – only for the whole top deck to start applauding!

FL, Chester

Lexi says...

WELL done!

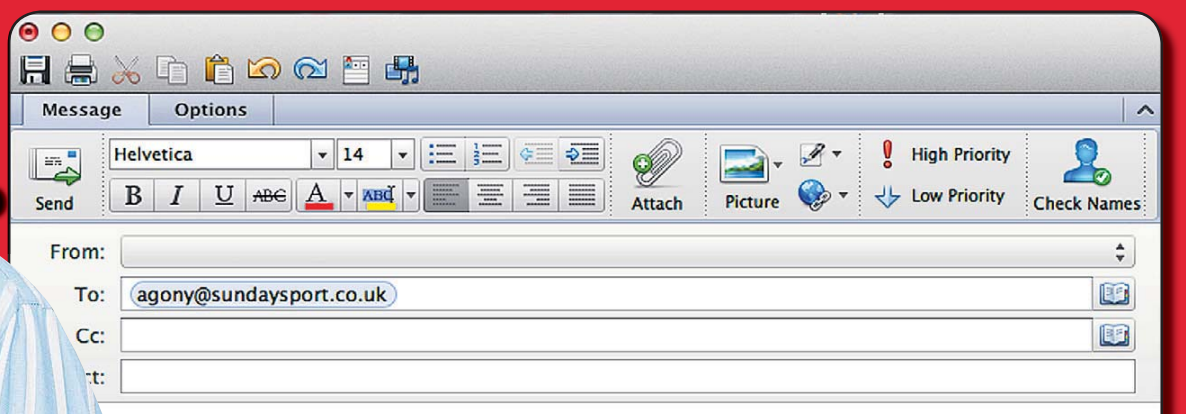
AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSO

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week LEXI LOWE has been reading through your letters. Here's her advice for you...

Agony



Office hunk gives me the rough sex I crave

Dear Lexi,

I'VE been married to my husband for more than 12 years and our sex life has become a bit stale.

My bloke is a really lovely guy but, sadly for me, he can be very boring, especially in the bedroom.

We go to bed and have a bit of foreplay, I give him a blowjob and then it's the same old thing.

I have tried to spice things up by wearing lingerie and buying sex toys he can use on me, but he insists it doesn't turn him on.

Bulge

The trouble is he's just too nice and he doesn't realise that all women want sometimes is some rough, dirty sex – a right good seeing-to.

So that's why I started an affair with a guy in my office. The first time we had sex it was fantastic – just what I had been craving.

It was Friday afternoon and everybody else had gone home early. I wrapped my arms around his neck and kissed him hard on the lips.

He thrust his tongue in my mouth and grabbed my breasts as I rubbed my hand against the hard bulge in the front of his trousers. Then he pushed me onto a desk, pulled my thighs apart and ripped off my knickers.

He grabbed my hair and pushed my head down towards his cock and I took him hungrily in my mouth, sucking for ages as he groaned with pleasure.

He rolled me over and started taking me doggy-style. I shouted to him to fk me harder and faster.

But suddenly he pulled away and started licking my shaven fanny.

After a couple of minutes he stood up and I shouted out to him: "Take me up the arse!"

So he thrust deep inside my bum and I screamed with pleasure as he pounded away for what seemed an age.

I then sucked him off and took him to the back of my throat, letting his shaft rub against my teeth to send him to the edge.

Just as he was about to come I stopped sucking and let him explode on my tits.

After our session I felt completely satisfied. I've been seeing my colleague for three months and in many ways it has helped my marriage as my need for wild sex is being fulfilled.

But I can't help feeling guilty and now I'm wondering whether I should tell my husband as I love him dearly.

What do you think I should do?

SA, Kent

Lexi says...

IF you love your husband you must not tell him. You say it's helping your marriage, so why spoil a good thing? But don't get caught.

Special home delivery

Dear Lexi,

I WORK for a small company doing deliveries. The office is full of girls and they are always asking me to collect things for them.

The other week, one of them asked me to pick her up some kitchen worktops. I agreed and I told her I'd meet her at her house in our lunch hour.

But when I got there, she pushed her hands down my pants and pulled out my throbbing cock.

She then sank to her knees, took my cock in her mouth and sucked on it until I was close to climaxing.

But I held back and then banged her as hard as I could. At one point her hand was cupping my balls and she said: "I want you to shoot it all over my tits!"

I pulled out of her dripping fanny and shot my load over her massive melons.

Now she wants her fella to watch me f*ck her.

Do you think I should?

CB, Exeter

Lexi says...

WHY the hell not?

Books With Jon Wise

THE SECOND SLEEP by Robert Harris (Hutchinson) ★★★★

ANOTHER book, another brilliant change of direction from Robert Harris, who never fails to entertain and keep his fans on their toes.

This one's set in 1468. Or is it? We follow Christopher Fairfax, a young priest who's been sent to an almost forgotten village in the West Country to bury the pastor. It seems Thomas Lacy had a nasty accident, a terrible fall near the feared Devil's Chair.

As the story unfolds, things feel a little odd, even more so when Fairfax starts snooping around Lacy's study and finds all sorts of artifacts from an earlier civilisation, one which relied heavily on mysterious communication devices and made roads poorly.

Fairfax meets the classy but skint Lady Durston and the mill owner who fancies her, John Hancock, and all three, guided by an expert in antiquities, succumb to a desire to find out the secrets of the Devil's Chair.

This sets up a confrontation between the religious powers that be, the superstitious locals and even each other.

As usual with Robert Harris, the book is an engrossing read which slowly releases its secrets and unveils a bigger picture than the one you think you're seeing...and, like his earlier work The Fear Index, it's a worrying one.

ELEVATOR PITCH by Linwood Barclay (HQ) ★★★★

YOU might want to take the stairs after reading this rocket-fuelled thriller.

It's set in high-rise Manhattan, where one day there's a terrible tragedy. A lift goes haywire, zooming to the top of a building then plummeting back down, killing the occupants. It'd be just one of those things if it wasn't for the fact that the same thing happens the next day, and the day after that.

Suddenly, in a city where the lift is about the most-used mode of transport, the lot have to be shut down, bringing the city to an expensive and lethal standstill.

Meanwhile, hacks and cops have a job on their hands trying to find the nutjob doing the deed.

Once again, Linwood Barclay shows how it's done, folks.

OUR MAN IN NEW YORK by Henry Hemming (Quercus) ★★★★

FAKE news is old news it would seem in this account of how one Brit persuaded the Yank public to change their mind and help us in WWII.

In June 1940, William Stephenson was sent by MI6 to New York with a brief to sort out public opinion.

Those against getting involved soon complained of conspiracies, dodgy opinion polls, false news etc, all sorts of lies and moody practices, though they could prove nothing.

The truth is, it was all the work of Stephenson, whose extraordinary story is told here for the first time.

The New Death Cult by The New Death Cult ★★★★★

IT'S too easy to pigeonhole some bands into a style or genre.

But every now and then a group comes along that seems to defy any categorising.

Enter The New Death Cult.

Not much is known about this mysterious quartet. Their bio says they hail from the outer fringes of the Andromeda Galaxy, and while that may indeed be cobblers – my money's on Scandinavia – their self-titled debut is certainly out of this world.

Tracks Zeitgeist, Blood of Babylon and Colours of the Mind are three belting tunes that draw comparison with everyone from Queens of the Stoneage to Hall & Oates.

Their riffs are progressive, melodic and at times have a retro, hard rock vibe and every song on here is a potential earworm.

One of the most interesting new bands to come along in quite a while and easily one of 2019's best debuts.

Talviyö by Sonata Arctica ★★★★

FINLAND'S finest exponents of power metal are back! Talviyö is the latest album from Sonata Arctica. The rousing and catchy Message From the Sun gets things under way – a sprawling opus with some nice intricate fretwork. Storm The Armada is another huge track driven by a stabbing combination of bass and percussion. Elsewhere, The Demon's Cage boasts a fantastic piano score that will have the hair on the back of your neck standing on end. Talviyö is a fantastic album from one of the genre's best bands.

Thirst by Vitja ★★★★

GERMANY'S rising metalcore star Vitja return this week with an incredible new album – Thirst. And they're a talented bunch – lyrically their music is up there with any summer chart anthem in terms of infectiousness. Mistakes and Lost In You are two crackers on here and both have huge, memorable choruses. There are many more tunes like that, too. But fear not, there are heavy riffs on here, too – in abundance with huge djent breakdowns and technical melodies. A very well written and well executed album.

Grasping Time by Vokonis ★★★★★

SWEDEN'S Vokonis blend mesmerising progressive melodies with heavy stoner grooves. There's plenty of musical depth on their new album Grasping Time, illustrated in AntlerQueen, Sunless Hymnal and Embers which are just a few of the epic compositions that deliver moments of soothing tunefulness and visceral, raw aggression in equal measure. A killer album.
